IF:GATHERING

ATTENDEE GUIDE

A Global Gathering | Two Thousand Seventeen

WELCOME

We're so glad that you've joined us — and women all over the globe — for this gathering. This weekend, women are coming together across generations and denominations under the name of Jesus. Amazing!

Our hope is that you would be inspired and compelled this weekend to take Jesus back to your places and your people. Our heart at IF:Gathering is to create tools that gather, equip and unleash women right where they are. We'd like to tell you about some of these resources, so you can engage with IF:Gathering all year long...

IF:Table is a monthly meal and conversation. We provide four questions each month. You invite a few women, break bread and learn about God and one another through community. You can read more about IF:Table on the following pages.

IF:Equip is a simple tool that has gathered an online community of tens of thousands of women who encourage and challenge one another. Each day we dive into Biblical truths, with a video and a few questions for processing. You can read more about IF:Equip on the following pages.

IF:Pray is when we gather around the world and humble ourselves before God in prayer. We believe God hears and answers prayers, and we want our focus to be a time of seeking the Lord in this way in our communities. Stay tuned for more information about this year's IF:Pray gathering.

Thank you for coming this weekend. We hope that it will be used for the glory of God and the good of others.

- THE IF:GATHERING TEAM

IF: EQUIP

IF:Equip is designed to provide practical tools and resources that will help you to know God and give Him away to others. It's what all of us were created to do, and our studies are aimed to equip you to live it out.

Each study is anywhere from 4-8 weeks in length, aimed at increasing your knowledge, transforming your heart, and impacting the way you live day-to-day. We provide a lesson, scripture, a question for journaling, and a video on a certain topic five days a week.

There are a few ways to use these tools! Grab one of our legacy studies in the Shoppe and get equipped on your own time, or subscribe to our latest study at IFEquip.com or through the IF:Gathering app. Check out all that IF:Equip has to offer!

"IT IS A GREAT WAY TO START MY DAY. LOVE HEARING DIFFERENT WOMEN DISCUSS GOD'S WORD. AS A CHURCH PLANTER'S WIFE, IT IS SUCH A GREAT TOOL TO BE ABLE TO SHARE WITH OTHER WOMEN. LOTS OF WOMEN ASK, 'HOW DO I START READING THE BIBLE?' IT IS SUCH A GREAT RESOURCE TO POINT THEM TO USE!" – Heather

"LOVING IT. IT HAS BEEN REALLY EFFECTIVE IN GETTING ME IN THE WORD MORE THAN OTHER STUDIES. IT IS SIMPLE. I LOVE JOURNALING, AND I LOOK FORWARD TO THE SHORT CLIPS." – Amber

WOVEN

The Art of Discipleship

At IF:Gathering, we are all about making disciples who go and make disciples. In Woven, we provide a basic blueprint that helps women take practical steps towards building intentional relationships. We're calling it WOVEN because discipleship isn't a to-do list nor a program. We believe that it is a weaving together of individuals' lives and stories, just like we're woven into this great redemption story. To help you get started, we present Jesus' call to discipleship and a basic cycle of what discipleship looks like.

IF:TABLE

While we adore getting together here at the IF:Gathering, we know that so much of our relationships take place within the context of homes and around tables. That's why we dreamed up the idea of IF:Table. The goal here is simple: two hours, four questions, six women.

We based these numbers on Acts 2:46, which says, "And day by day, attending the temple together and breaking bread in their homes, they received their food with glad and generous hearts."

It doesn't have to be anything fancy or orchestrated. It could be a potluck or takeout or breakfast food. But what matters is that you pull up chairs to the table and ask questions that reveal where you are in a real, authentic way. Our hope is that, as women come together at the table, they are able to be known and get to know others and live out discipleship in an environment that is safe and personal. Each IF:Table has a flavor of its own because every woman brings her own uniqueness — which we love!

We provide the questions every month and sometimes a recipe or a story to go along with inspiration for gathering around the table. Our prayer is that, as you invite people into your home, you will find that you can welcome one another to follow after Jesus in the ordinary, everyday lives that you lead in the places God has put you.

A SONG OF HOPE :: Dasha grew up in Troitskoye, a village on the Amur River in far eastern Russia. As a child, she felt self-conscious and inferior. Her teen years were spent drinking 190-proof alcohol. One day, Dasha knocked on the door of a local church. The pastor smelled the alcohol on her breath and closed the door in her face. She heard it lock, and Dasha's tears turned angry as she pounded and kicked the door. "Jesus would not do this!" she screamed. Then the door opened.

That desperate day changed everything. She became the first from her family to accept Jesus. She also pursued an education in music. Each weekend, she makes a 3 ½-hour journey to Troitskoye to lead worship at the church where she experienced salvation, and to visit her mother. Dasha's hope is for her family to accept Jesus and be saved.

Dasha's mother speaks Russian, but her heart language is Nanai. That's why local Bible translators are helping Nanai storytellers craft accurate Bible stories. Together, they are working to share the Good News with their people – and create a bridge for the Nanai elders – in the language they understand the best. That is Dasha's song of hope.

More than any other time in history, people from every generation are asking, “Do I matter?” We desire to matter today for our families, our communities, and ourselves. By brewing Phoenix Roasters coffee you do matter. In Honduras, our missionary partner started a coffee co-op among the indigenous Lenca Indian tribe. Six of these farmers are single mothers who are being dignified by growing great coffee. In Guatemala, our missional farmers and partners are growing coffee that creates funds to build homes for single mothers in the indigenous rural village of San Juan Moca. In Panama, our missional farmers are directly funding 87 missionaries around the globe, of which, 17 are women.

When you choose Phoenix Roasters specialty grade, direct-trade coffee, your choice matters. The cause of Christ will shine through this cycle of relief, by significantly increasing the living wage to workers on coffee farms, working to stop domestic abuse, strengthening families, and ending homelessness locally and around the world. When you purchase Coffee That Matters from Phoenix Roasters, you matter!

Every morning during my visit to Rwanda the sun rose huge and orange over cool misty mountains in the distance. It was like an invitation to see God each day and it was never hard to find him.

I found God at the Africa New Life campus in Kigali. He was with the women in the sewing program – reflected in the hope in their eyes as the new skills they learn empower and equip them to take care of themselves and their families. He was dancing with the ladies in the Dream Beauty Academy, whose joy had burst out into song and dance. I felt God in the home of my sponsored child. In her mothers' words as she prayed with me and over me. As she praised God for answering her prayers for provision. She asked God to take care of me and my children. We are all family now. I was overwhelmed that God put some of His treasure into my hands to bring to Rwanda. That my prayers to find purpose had met with her prayers that God would provide.

We visited a church where thousands were murdered during the genocide. Clothing was stacked in memory of those who died, the baby sweater on top. There were shelves of skulls and not enough air. I couldn't feel God there, but I could hear Him. On the other side of the fence a new church and school have been built. The children are laughing and playing. It sounds like Easter morning to me. Like God has once again conquered death. The stories of forgiveness and reconciliation in this land are truly miraculous. I left with a hope that this kind of gospel will transform the place where I live too.

Go Rings was founded on the belief that the products we buy and the jewelry we wear can make a tangible difference in the world. In 2013, Darcie, a recent TCU graduate, created and began selling the very first wire Go Rings to fund an 11-month mission trip around the world. She surpassed her fundraising goal, but the rings kept selling like crazy. The product and purpose were contagious, and boom, she had a business. Darcie partnered with Dru, her college roommate, who took over running the Go Rings operation while she was away.

After the rings took off, Darcie and Dru realized that by donating a portion of each purchase, Go Rings could provide a tangible solution to one of the biggest problems every charitable cause faces: fundraising. The little golden rings that helped Darcie fund her trip now support the work of nearly 50 organizations and individuals around the world. At the heart of Go Rings is a commitment to creating beautiful handmade jewelry for every occasion and financially equipping those who are going out and doing good.

Jessica Honegger launched Noonday Collection in 2010 after she met Jalia and Daniel, talented jewelry designers in Uganda who dreamed of using fashion to create dignified jobs in their community. Jessica hosted the first Noonday Trunk Show, selling Jalia and Daniel's jewelry in her home to raise funds to adopt from Rwanda. Women fell in love with the style and story of Noonday Collection – and Jessica began to dream bigger than a fundraiser.

Jessica soon partnered with Travis Wilson, a friend passionate about social entrepreneurship and experienced in building businesses. Together they dreamed of starting a business that would alleviate poverty through entrepreneurship. This dream became Noonday Collection, a business that uses fashion to create meaningful opportunities around the world.

In 2011, they launched the Ambassador Opportunity, inviting women across the United States to launch Noonday businesses in their communities. Noonday Ambassadors are stylists, storytellers and social entrepreneurs who earn an income by selling beautiful products handmade by Artisans around the world.

Noonday travels the world to identify artisan entrepreneurs who design jewelry and accessories in collaboration with talented local Artisans, using unique materials and traditional skills. They now partner with 30 artisan businesses in 13 countries. Together we are creating opportunity for more than 2,000 Artisans, impacting 8,800 family members.

When you shop our collection, host a Trunk Show, or become an Ambassador, you join us in creating a flourishing world where children are cherished, people have jobs, women are empowered and we are connected. Join us!

Raven + Lily is an ethical lifestyle brand dedicated to empowering women through design. We currently partner with over 1,500 women across 9 countries. They are talented artisans seeking to improve their livelihoods and break the cycle of poverty. Our design approach is a modern take on traditional craftsmanship; the collections are thoughtfully designed in our Austin studio, taking into consideration the skills of each artisan partnership. When you purchase our handcrafted apparel, jewelry, or home décor, you help provide dignity for women through fair-trade employment. Our products utilize eco-friendly and sustainable materials without compromising on style or quality. You can shop our designs online or at our Rock Rose Domain location.

Every Raven + Lily piece has a story, just like every woman we help employ. Here's a glimpse into the life of one of our leather bag artisans, Ruth: "Since joining this team, I am finding so much joy. I spent a year doing vocational training as a seamstress, and that's how I heard about the leather program. Now I have been working with R+L's leather partnership for 4 years and have learned so much. It has taught me a lot about patience! It has also given me the dream of opening my own business one day. When I see the pieces finished, it makes me happy. I like the work and I like coming to work. I have gained sisters through working with these women, and when I come to the workshop it feels like coming home."

SCARLET & GOLD

SCARLET & GOLD IS A GIFT AND LIFESTYLE
BRAND SEEKING TO FULFILL OUR BRAND
PROMISE: CREATE. GIVE. INSPIRE.

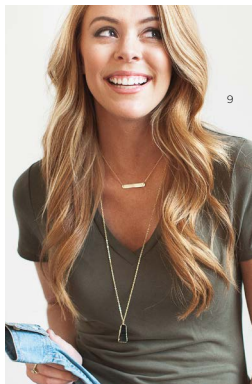

Our shop was born from the idea that life is too short not to adorn your walls with meaningful things. We are a team of people just like you - Christians - all just seeking to use our God given talents to impact this world for the better. We deeply desire to make products that matter. Products that challenge you to have hard conversations, love people well and make waves. Products that equip you to follow God's calling to us as Christians. "Therefore, go and make disciples of all nations..." We believe that every one of us was created with unique gifts and it's our calling in life to use those to impact others' in a positive way. There is only one you - so we choose to come together as a team and bring all of our gifts to the table so that we can change the world one product at a time. Not only are we dedicated to equipping you with tools through our products but we will use the proceeds from our products to make an even bigger impact on the world through charities we believe in.

The name of our business reflects who we are. Scarlet comes from Isaiah 1:18 and signifies Christ's blood that He shed on the cross to reconcile us to God. It also reminds us of our southern roots. Gold comes from 1 Peter 1:7 and represents the refining process that the Lord works in us and the promise of eternity that His sacrifice makes possible. It is our goal that our brand embodies biblical truth, tasteful simplicity and product excellence.

THE BROKEN WAY by ANN VOSKAMP

It's what her heart would like to say to you . . . about the faithful, loving, impeccably trustworthy heart of God.

UNINVITED by LYSA TERKEURST

The enemy wants us to feel rejected - left out, lonely, and less than. In Uninvited, Lysa shares her own deeply personal experiences of rejection—from the perceived judgment of the perfectly toned woman one elliptical over to the incredibly painful childhood abandonment by her father. She leans in to honestly examine the roots of rejection, as well as rejection's ability to poison relationships from the inside out, including our relationship with God.
