Lo, the winter is past,
the rain is over and gone.

Flowers appear on the earth;
the time of singing has come.

New?

Welcome to Park Street Church! We're glad you are here, and we invite you to become a part of this community of Jesus' disciples.

If you're new, here are some specific steps you can take to connect:

- Fill out a Connect card in the pews and hand it to an usher or drop it in the offering plate. You can also visit parkstreet.org or scan this QR code. We'll be in touch.
- Meet an elder or minister at the Info Desk in the Welcome Center and pick up a Welcome booklet to take with you.
- RSVP to the invitation you receive for the Newcomers' Lunch where you can meet other newcomers and church leaders, hear about our community, and ask questions.

Collective Prayers

"Then Jonah prayed to the LORD his God from the belly of the fish, saying, 'I called out to the LORD, out of my distress, and he answered me; out of the belly of Sheol I cried, and you heard my voice.'" - Jonah 2:1-2

Let us pray together...

- To the Lord who made heaven and earth, that he would be recognized throughout the world as the creator of everything and given all the praise that we meager humans can muster.
- For our government leaders: Mayor Wu, Governor Healy, and President Biden, along with the many others who shape policies in our communities, that they would govern justly and wisely.
- That the Holy Spirit would empower us to love one another at Park Street Church, so that Boston will know that we are Jesus' disciples.
- For the sick and suffering around us, that God would show his kindness to them through his people.
- Giving thanks for the life of Sadie Thibault who died on Sunday, April 28, at one hundred years old. Sadie was involved at Park Street Church for many years as a Sunday School teacher, through the hosting of missionaries, and as part of the FOCUS Committee.
- Giving thanks for the life of Maura Gelbloom who passed away at the Sherrill House Nursing Facility earlier this year. Maura was known by many staff and congregants.
